Taking that first step to seek counselling can be difficult to do.

We understand this and our counsellors will make you feel at ease, listen to you and work with you in a supportive and respectful way.

You will be in an environment which is private, safe, and comfortable so that you can talk freely and confidentially.

Over the years we have counselled many people through the joys, challenges and tragedies that mark our life journey.

Our professional female & male counsellors are experienced and highly qualified. To assist you they use evidence based psychological therapies.

They will teach you coping skills and strategies which you can practise to improve your situation more quickly.

Our team of counsellors are passionate and committed to helping individuals, couples, and families to live the best possible life and to help them make positive changes in their lives.
